Response to Question 11

Embassy of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

Registrant provides counsel to the Embassy of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan in connection with its discussions with the US Government related to litigation brought under the Alien Tort Statute and Anti-Terrorism Act against Arab Bank, PLC. Additionally, Registrant provides counsel, including strategy development, legal analysis, and advocacy, to the Embassy of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan before officials and staff of the Executive Branch of the US Government in connection with that litigation.

Embassy of Japan

Registrant advises and represents the foreign principal on general diplomatic representation, laws, regulations, policies, proposed congressional measures, treaties and other international agreements, international trade policy, and actions by the US Congress, Executive Branch, US Government agencies and certain state and local governments that may affect or relate to the interests of the foreign principal, the bilateral US-Japan/Japan-US relationship, and/or Japanese nationals, including corporations. In some instances, these services include representation in international trade-related matters and litigation. Registrant also advises the foreign principal on legal and regulatory matters relating to the Embassy and/or to its diplomats.

Georgian Oil and Gas Corporation

Registrant advocates on behalf of the foreign principal with US Government officials and/or agencies, and others related to: Georgia; the US-Georgia/Georgia-US relationship; and the congressional measures and other congressional activity in the 115th Congress and in the 116th Congress of possible interest to Georgia and the Georgian Oil and Gas Corporation.

Government of Antigua and Barbuda

Registrant periodically assists the foreign principal with submissions made to the National Committee on Foreign Medical Education and Accreditation, pursuant to which the foreign principal seeks to have the US Secretary of Education continue to find that its medical program accreditation standards are comparable to those used in the United States.

Hogan Lovells US LLP

Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Registrant has been representing the foreign principal in the Helmerich & Payne litigation, and those activities have been exempt from registration under section 613(g). As requested by the foreign principal, the Registrant in the past reached out to staff of the executive branches of the US Government as appropriate regarding the interests of the US Government in the litigation, as well as the interests of the foreign principal in the litigation. To perform these services effectively, the Registrant coordinated with the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (including the Ministry of Foreign Affairs), its agencies and instrumentalities, as well as with corporations and other organizations in Venezuela whose interests may be impacted. Registrant no longer expects to engage in related non-exempt activities.

Following the recognition made on January 23, 2019 by the US Government of Juan Guaido as the Interim President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, the firm is taking instructions for this matter only from legitimate representatives of the Guaido Government, including Special Attorney General Jose Ignacio Hernandez.

Islamic Republic of Afghanistan

Registrant provided legal guidance to the foreign principal with respect to the impact on the foreign principal of the re-imposition of certain sanctions on Iran following the US withdrawal from the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action. This legal guidance involved recommendations to the foreign principal as to engagement with the US Government regarding these matters. In addition to the registrable activities, we have advised the foreign principal in connection with contract negotiations in the natural resource and electric power sectors of Afghanistan and provided advice regarding laws and regulations for the natural resource and electric power sectors and public procurement process in Afghanistan.

Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia, Washington, DC

Registrant provides legal counsel to the foreign principal in connection with litigation support and general foreign policy and related matters. In addition, as requested by the foreign principal, Registrant renders advice on legal, legislative, regulatory and public policy activities of interest. Registrant also advises the foreign principal on media reports and related public affairs developments. As required, Registrant undertakes specific advocacy assignments with regard to litigation, legislative, regulatory, public policy or public affairs matters, and/or in other activities.
